

SHEN Annual Forum 2010

10am - 4pm, Wednesday 24th March

Tame the Employability Animal!

The event is Edinburgh based over 2 venues with lunch and transport between sites provided.

Wear comfortable, farm friendly clothes!

For more information contact

e: clare@scsh.org.uk

t: 0131 226 4382

Send a booking form to e: barbara@scsh.org.uk

t: 0131 226 4382

Places are limited
priority given to SHEN members.
Free to members
non-members £30

reaching out to employers

welfare reform

engaging with the hard to reach social enterprise in action

working with the business community

Employment... is a key part of the solution to homelessness

SHEN Annual Forum 2010

10am - 4pm, Wednesday 24th March

Tame the Employability Animal!

Programme

- 9.30 - 10.00 Arrivals & registration at The Mansion House, Edinburgh Zoo, 134 Corstorphine Road, Edinburgh EH12 6TS
- 10.00 - 10.10 Welcome, and Introduction to day
Clare Archibald SHEN, coordinator
- 10.10 - 10.20 SHEN in 2010.
- 10.20 - 10.50 Plenary session - Positively engaging hard to reach clients
Steve Davies, Manager, King Georges Hostel, London
- 10.50 - 11.20 Workshop 1 - either Welfare Reform (Julianne Bilotti, Policy Manager, Employability Team, Scottish Govt & Anne Maguire, Jobcentreplus)
or Engaging with Employers
(Peta Garbett, Service Manager, & Patricia Anderson, Employer Liason Officer Barnardo Works)
- 11.20 - 11.30 Break
- 11.30 - 12.00 Workshop 2 - as per Workshop 1
- 12.00 - 12.45 Lunch
- 12.45 Travel by coach to the Edinburgh Cyrenians Farm, Kirknewton
- 1.30 -2.00 Group 1 - social enterprise in action
(Rob Davidson, Edinburgh Cyrenians)
Group 2 - study tour
(Tom Phillips, Edinburgh Cyrenians)
- 2.00 - 2.30 Reverse of above
- 2.30 - 2.45 Break
- 2.45 - 3.30 Employability Activity (Edinburgh Cyrenians)
- 3.40 Travel by coach to Edinburgh Haymarket and Waverley

Please wear clothes and footwear appropriate for an outdoor setting. Most of the sessions will take place under a roof, but there will be some time spent outside.

